

Comment by Donald Coleman 1046 Crestlane (Village X):

I have provided copies of the draft legal documents to two different attorneys in separate law firms.

One attorney told me that the draft documents the board is asking members to approve are “horribly written”.

The other attorney advised me that “there are a number of provisions which are simply unenforceable and, therefore, should not be included.”